

HUBERT CREVOISIER I'm blue, I'm yellow, I'm green glass... and I see red!

Musée Ariana, 25 February–7 August 2022

PRESS RELEASE

Geneva, 8 February 2022

The Ariana Museum is pleased to present Hubert Crevoisier. I am blue, I am yellow, I am green glass... and I see red! from 25 February to 7 August 2022 in the space dedicated to contemporary creation. Hubert Crevoisier, a Swiss artist, presents a strong and committed work that reveals, with sensitivity and modesty, the palette of his inner world.

In the melting pot of Hubert Crevoisier's artistic practice (Switzerland, 1963), we find glass, colour and space. His installations, formal but never rigid, reveal with precision, sensitivity and modesty the palette of his intense world. Bathed in the zenithal lighting of the exhibition rooms, his glass bricks and monoliths takes us into a poetic, vibrant, beneficent world.

This artist cannot limit himself to a single medium. Without any discourse or blah-blah, embroidery and painting join in an intuitive dialogue.

Starting with the premise that art is good for one's health, artist and nurse Hubert Crevoisier offers us a window onto the beneficial, even therapeutic role of art in general and of museums in particular.
